ON THE ROAD To The Title

Sutherland Sharks 1
Central Coast Coasties 2

Greg Stock and Peter Smith were at Seymour Shaw Park....

A committed display by the Central Coast defence ensured they returned from their roadtrip to Seymour Shaw Park with maximum points. The small but vocal Saturday night crowd were treated to a fast entertaining match that saw the Coasties hold a spirited Sutherland side second half fightback to take their first points for the season.

Sutherland coach John Lavin preferred ex Leichhardt Tigers goalkeeper Flavio Novaro to last week's custodian Dennis Olla and reshuffled his backline to include ex Stanmore Hawks sweeper Archilles Markopoulos.

Right from when referee Jeff Tippett blew the opening whistle both sides seemed content to attack and play an open style of football. From as early as the 7th minute Preston and Sontag combined well in midfield to release the flying Nathan Byrn with a pinpoint pass. Byrn released a great drive from about 14 yards on the angle past the diving Novaro. 1-0 to the visitors.

Sutherland was equally ambitious early when a Markopoulos freekick found the tall Malcolm Bideau but his header was too steep to trouble Steve Angelov.

Angelov again found himself in the action moments later when a long ball found the energetic Craig Hobbs on the edge of the area. In traffic Hobbs did well to twist and turn his way past Steele and Maltby but was unable to get a final touch. A minute later another long ball from Markopoulos found Hobbs but Angelov was quick to realise the danger and left his line early to smother the Hobbs effort.

Both sides were going a hundred miles an hour in the humid conditions and in the 20th minute the Coasties Derryk Kane found himself in space after Preston had nodded on a defensive clearance. His shot however was unable to beat Novaro who quickly left his line to turn the effort wide.

Hobbs won a Sutherland corner a minute later but the resulting effort saw Bideau again force a desperate save from the energetic Angelov who tipped his header over the bar.

In the 31st minute Peter Preston literally made the game his own. Taking the ball in midfield the Coasties speedster tore through three Sutherland defenders in a scintillating run at pace. From just inside the area he unleashed a smashing drive past Novaro which bought the crowd to its feet.

Two nil at half time and Sutherland really had their work cut out to make an impact.

In the second stanza the Coasties defence was under constant pressure. In the 53rd Keegan Pillay back after a season with Rockdale City Suns made a great run down the right. His deep cross found Levi Stephen who turned the ball to the unmarked Hobbs but he shot wide from close range.

The Sutherland forwards started to find their feet but it wasn't till the 67th minute that the 2-0 gap was reduced. Ex St George forward Jimmy Corbo found Levi Stephen on the edge of the Coasties area. With a deft left turn he shook off his marker and let fly with a low drive leaving Angelov stranded. 2-1 and all of a sudden the Sutherland side had a sniff.

The home crowd became more vocal as the game wore on. The heat and humidity was taking its toll and both introduced some fresh legs. John Lavin bought on Cord Tolson for Pillay while Allan Bourke replaced the brilliant Peter Preston with Ryan McKendrick 12 minutes from time.

With 8 minutes remaining Sutherland midfielder Levi Stephen almost dragged back a point for the home side. Dispossessing the Coasties Jai McDermott in the opposition half Stephen took on the solid Coasties defence in a great solo run but at the vital moment his final touch was off balance and the ball trickled harmlessly across the by line.

Sutherland made one final charge but Stephens' long-range header was eventually tipped over by Angelov.

In the winning dressing rooms a club spokesman for Coasties coach Allan Bourke signaled out goalkeeper Steve Angelov for special praise and defender Marcus Steele for his tireless defensive efforts. Ably led by Mark Drysdale the Coasties back four were the pillar on which the victory was built. Peter Preston and Nathan Byrn provided a focus up front and constantly taunted the Sharks defence.

Sutherland coach John Lavin was understandably disappointed with his side but he looked to Adam Daley's effort at the back and the spirited second half performance of Levi Stephen as a highlight. "If you can't finish in front of goal you don't deserve to win football games" he quipped.

With a midweek friendly against the Northern Spirit planned it should give the Sharks players a chance to develop a bit more combination ahead of an away trip to Gabbie Stadium next Saturday night. For the Coasties its another difficult road trip to face Canterbury-Marrickville at Henson Park but on tonight's effort they'll again be hard to beat.

Sutherland: Novaro, Daley, Richardson, Summers, Bideau, Markopoulos, Stephen, Hobbs, Podesta (Tolson 69'), Corbo, Pillay.

MACARTHUR WIN THRILLER AT LYNWOOD PARK

Blacktown City made much of the early running at Lynwood Park on Saturday night and were also troubling the Rams for long periods in attack throughout the game, yet left empty handed and had nothing but frustration to show from their visit to the sultry south west.

Such was the ability to delight that the Blacktown team brought with them that they had the supporters of both sides eating out of their hands, applauding knowledgeably, the passages of play, which nevertheless failed to yield the desired end result.

Demons players featured in all the opening sequences of play, Jason Bennett skying a chance in the 3rd minute after being set free with a long pass from half way by Damien Foxe and Steve Cutler seeing his shot smothered by an alert John Crawley a minute later. John Angelucci had already skimmed the crossbar with a header in the opening two minutes. In the end it was from a Macarthur cross by Martin Bourke in the 12th that Blacktown did manage at last to find the net, but unfortunately it was their own.

Paul Yates miskicked his clearance and the ball nestled at the back of Fernando Greco's goal.

Blacktown continued to press forward an Bennett again was unable to make the most of the good service, shooting wide after a long ball sent through to him from deep in the 23rd. Steve Cutler then headed a Damien Brown cross over the bar in the 28th and all the Rams had managed, apart from their surprise goal, was a couple of moves involving Iain McDonald and Adrian Macerola with each player in turn denied easily by Greco.

Brilliant former Sydney Olympic junior Kain Rastall made the Demons pay for their profligacy, by unleashing a superb 30 yard drive to find the top corner of Greco's net in the 37th after Shane Knight had laid the ball in his path.

Blacktown was able to respond, however, just four minutes later when Damien Foxe made a surging run down the left, skipped past David Reid and tucked the ball under the prone figure of Crawley.

Mikulatic safely gathers a high ball.

Greco was nearly exposed to a third, when the second half began as the first had finished, with the Rams well to the fore. Eric Williams, on for McDonald at half time, crossed smartly for Rastall whose first shot was blocked and when the ball came loose Macerola chipped it goalwards only for Greco to make a fine one-handed save.

Macerola linked with Williams to set up another scoring opportunity in the 55th, but Yates made the tackle that counted this time and the chance was lost.

Blacktown kept taking the game to Macarthur and forced a series of corners around the hour mark and from the last of these John Angelucci was able to slot the ball away for the equaliser. Damien Brown had swung over the corner and found Bennett on the far post, who had time to control the ball before laying on the pass which led to the goal.

Cleary and Angelucci combined to set up Brown in the 73rd, but the latter's shot hit the post.

Macarthur nearly fell behind for the first time in the 74th when the ball was cleared off the Rams' line from Stuart Cleary's cross.

Stalwart defender Richard Lloyd capitalised on those near misses and a good bounce as he stepped past three defenders at the other end to slot home what proved to be the winner for Macarthur a minute later, with a close range finish.

Crawley went on to make two crucial saves late in the game, Angelucci and Bennett both going close in the last ten minutes. Williams almost made it four for the Rams at the death with a shot that the Demons' defenders managed to block.

Peter Sermanni appeared well at ease at the heart of the Demons' defence and appears the best of the off-season recruits, going about his business in cool and steady fashion.

Lloyd was an inspiration for the home side with his industriousness and ability to get forward when required, which on this occasion saw him claim the winning goal.

Macarthur, after just two rounds, find themselves the only side with a 100 per cent record.

Macarthur Rams: Crawley, Willard, Lloyd, Cerjak, Bourke, Macerola, D. Reid, McDonald (Williams 46), Knight, Rastall, Whiddett
Blacktown City: Greco, Lowe, Cutler, Foxe, Smith (Bradley 75), Angelucci, Cleary, Bennett, Sermanni, Yates, Brown
Scorers: Macarthur Rams: Yates o.g. 12, Rastall 37, Lloyd 75
Blacktown City: Foxe 43, Angelucci 59
Yellow Cards: Cerjak 75 (Macarthur) Smith 38 (Blacktown)
Best for Macarthur: Richard Lloyd
Best for Blacktown City: Peter Sermanni

Eastern Suburbs 1
Leichhardt Tigers 2

Mark Fowler was at Wentworth Park

A goal five minutes from time by Leichhardt's Sakib Boudaher gave the Tigers all three points in a close encounter with Eastern Suburbs.

Boudaher tucked the ball away from close range after great work on the right touchline enabled him to meet a cross on the volley. It was tough on Eastern Suburbs, who had survived a strong Tiger's performance in the first 30 minutes before gradually getting their own game together.

The game turned on a penalty awarded to the Tigers after 66 minutes.

Confusion in the home team's penalty area saw referee Nick Conditsis give a spot kick for handball, which Tom Badzaric was only to eager to convert.

That made the game 1-1, and it looked to stay that way until Boudaher's late intervention gave the Tigers a win and a draw from their first two games and left Eastern Suburbs pointless.

Things had looked better for Eastern Suburbs after holding out Leichhardt early, especially when the lively Steve McCombe gave them the lead after 35 minutes. A ball played in found the quick attacker able to prod the ball into the bottom right hand corner and past the Tiger's custodian Frank Mikuletic.

Eastern Suburbs, a study of concentration.

In the first 30 minutes Leichhardt created a number of good opportunities, although only one clear cut chance. That fell to the speedy Chris Lansdowne, who was thwarted by Eastern Suburbs reserve 'keeper Con Anastasiadis.

Anastasiadis blocked Lansdowne's first effort, but the ball fell back to the long-haired attacker whose second effort looked goal-bound. Once again though, Anastasiadis, only playing due to injury to regular number 1 Adam Mark, saved well and deflected the effort wide. 10 minutes after Lansdowne's double effort, the Tigers Eric Hristodoulou showed great skill in beating his man and laying the ball back for Badzaric, whose shot was blocked. On the stroke of half time Leichhardt thought they had been awarded a penalty after the referee pointed to the spot, but the referee's assistant had correctly already ruled offside.

Leichhardt's two second half goals were sandwiched in between an Eastern Suburbs effort that hit the back of the net, but the referee had already blown for an infringment.

Tiger's coach Arno Bertogna was pleased with his team's result, although realising it wasn't a pretty game. "It was a game for the battlers out there," said Bertogna. "We showed a lot of character to come back."

Eastern Suburbs coach John Calleja told Super Soccer that after surviving the early onslaught his team looked comfortable - until the penalty which brought Leichhardt level.

Calleja also said that it was the second time his team had lost yet had been told by the opposition officials that he had been unlucky, but said that was scant consolation!

Both teams fought hard in hot conditions and it was a shame that a team had to come away with nothing to show from their efforts.

Eastern Suburbs: Anastasiadis, Pullicino, Lawrence (Orhan 85), Canning, Stout (Darvill 83), Ekinci, Imaya (Somboli 87), Beldham, Stevares, McCombe, Nicholls.

Leichhardt Tigers: Mikuletic, Pillemar, Testoro, Pettenon, Hristodoulou, James, Boudaher, Macolino, Lansdowne (Talcevski 70), Badzaric, Kdouh (Lamacchia 51)

Parramatta Eagles 2 Ryde City 1

A game of two halves saw Parramatta Eagles score twice in the last ten minutes to seal victory against a Ryde outfit who dominated the first half.

The two goals for the Eagles came at the perfect time (80 and 82 minutes) giving Ryde no chance of coming back. The equaliser with ten minutes to go saw Reveley win the ball well before Araujo played the ball through to Islas after beating his man. Islas still had work to do, but after drawing the keeper he slid the ball under Ryde custodian Les Bihari.

Just two minutes later Bihari was picking the ball out of his net again, after a free kick by Mittiga found the head of substitute Evans, a half time replacement, who drove the ball home.

Ryde's goal came after 38 minutes courtesy of Portelli, who put them in front after a cross from Peatey eluded Eagles goalkeeper Holmes. Holmes misjudged the cross leaving an empty net which Portelli was more than pleased to head into.

The Eagles had a couple of noteworthy chances in the first half - a deflected shot from Bard after ten minutes and just ten minutes later a good chance for Islas which just ran away from him.

Parramatta Eagles: Holmes, Utjesenovic, O'Grady (Evans 45), Dowling, Reveley, Boskovski (Mielak 72), Araujo (Anderson 88), Bard, Islas, Mittiga, Olic.

Ryde City: Bihari, Segreto, Moffit, Watkins (Glucina 83), Peatey, Sharpley, Cetinay, Vardar, Nicol, Kethel (Johnsson 68), Portelli

Scorers: Parramatta Eagles: Islas 80' Evans 82' Ryde City: Portelli 38'

Best for Parramatta: Reveley

Best for Ryde: Sharpley

Yellow Cards: Ryde City Moffit 28' Watkins 40'

Fairfield Bulls 2 Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2

Fairfield Bulls and Bonnyrigg White Eagles shared the points in the 2nd round of the Super League at Ninevah Field on Sunday.

Smarting from their loss to Bankstown the Eagles started the game well and often penetrated the Bulls defence. Fortunately for Fairfield they were able to absorbe the pressure and then started to apply some of their own back on the Eagles.

In the 14th minute Bonnyrigg converted a free kick through a well struck goal by Paul Dee. Their lead lasted only three minutes however, with Sam Larocca also scoring a free kick to level for Fairfield.

Larocca and Bonnyrigg's Robert Gomez were dominating the game and it came as no surprise that Gomez put his side 2-1 ahead in the 24th minute.

The game was being played at a surprisingley fast pace and was hard-fought, with at one point the referee asking both captains to get their teams to cool it.

Fairfield equalised for the second time in the match on the stroke of half-time, with Sam Larocca netting again.

The second half was an even affair withthe Bulls' Matthew Borg chipping the goalkeeper only to see his shot hit the post. For the neutral a draw was probably the fairest result and leaves the Bulls more than satisfied with their start in Super League.

Team line-ups and details to follow in next weeks issue

Bankstown City Lions 1 Canterbury Marrickville 5

No details available at the time of printing - will provide match details in next week's issue.

Please note:

In Super Soccer number 2 for 1999 there were three errors in the names of scorers in the match reports section.

1) The scorer for Canterbury was Robbie Jerkovic and not Angelo Markopoulos
2) The scorer of the fifth goal for Bankstown was Nabil Codmani and not Robbie Issa
3) The scorer of Blacktown's first goal was Damien Smith and not Damien Brown, though Smith was mentioned correctly in the report iiself.

These errors were due to our need to meet deadlines before details were fully confirmed.

Mike TODOROSKI

BANKSTOWN CITY LIONS

Bankstown's Mile Todorovski is a man who, despite Zoki Adioski's four goals of quality against Bonnyrigg at the Serbian Centre in Round One action, consistently stood out.

Controlling the midfield and always seeming to have the time on the ball that all class players have, the 39 year old should play a big part this season for the Lions.

New Coach Sakib Lovic was quick to praise Todorovski's contribution, and also his general enthusiasm and commitment.

"He is having a new lease of life this season - he is 39 going on 21!" said the affable Lovic. "He was just marvellous in pre-season."

Mikuletic, Fabio Macolino, Hassan Kdouh, Arno Betogna (Coach), Paul Fioretto (Physio), Michael Ho Shon (Physio)
Absent - John Pillemer

SUPER Soccer Shorts

Scott Ollerenshaw's return to action with Ryde City a fortnight ago went well until the final moments when he was left hobbling after a tackle and found the ankle he had been troubled by for over a year inflamed once more. Up to that point he had looked sharp and capable of providing the Gunners with some much needed extra fire power, but it is back for more treatment now and hope of a clear run once fit again.

Eastern Suburbs may have begun the season quietly with two narrow losses, but their main gain in recent weeks has been an assurance that the grant of $20,000 has definitely been made available to enable Botany Council to have ready their new home ground at Hensley Field in time for matches there in April.

The new turf has been organised, with the existing field event facilities being modified to allow full use of the ground for Super League soccer.

There was a lot of work required to bring the long established athletics centre up to standard, but the club is very confident that all the hard work and long wait will be worth it and they can at last have a home ground to suit the needs of their large player and supporter base.

Opposite the Eastgardens shopping centre and with its own dedicated 450 space car park, at the adjacent Orica complex, Hensley will be a huge boost to the area's soccer followers.

The club also announced that a substantial sum had been agreed to as sponsorship for the new season by the Coogee Bay Hotel, but that is not the end of the matter as another major sponsor is to be announced shortly as well.

The latest signing to the club is Malcolm Nicholls a 23 year old New Zealander who has already shown up well in the first couple of matches.

Turning to First and Second Divisions which kick off in under a month, there have been plenty of trial games scheduled over the last few weeks and newly promoted Dulwich Hill are hoping for another good season.

Coach Dennis Duarte is hopeful that his Brazilian ace, Allesandro dos Santos will stay with the club, despite the brilliant player's obvious ability and his intention of scouting for opportunities at a higher level.

He is a good player and is on a visa so many clubs will shy away from paying what is necessary to sign him on. Dulwich Hill have no such worries and would be delighted to have him back to help them mount a promotion campaign in First Division.

They already have persuaded Phil Cacciola to rejoin them after a season or two at Stanmore Hawks and the club is also pleased that Marc Santarossa is to be with them again after a period at Belmore Hercules.

Speedy wingman Victor Rebelo is still on the injured list, a long time without a resolution to his back problems, defender Ennio Morson has linked with ambitious 3rd Division outfit Fraser Park and team mate Zaya Jebraiel could join him, though he is still happy to give Dulwich another go if it works out that way.

Assistant coach Tony Gomes has brought some good players along after his spell at Manly-Warringah under Agenor Muniz and the reserves should have a strong season. Both David Martin and Peter Trajcevski will again contest the keeper's spot at Arlington Oval where the supporters are looking forward to a return to the glory days of this Portuguese backed club, with the Madeira insignia.

Dulwich have had a comfortable 5-1 win already over 2nd Division outfit Hurstville ZSC in a trial and were due to play the other Hurstville side the Minotaurs last weekend.

This weekend at Arlington they meet Stanmore, with a 4 pm Sunday kick off and a week later at the same time and place it will be Hills United.

Another club with trials in mind is Penrith Panthers a club who are much happier this year now that they have found a ground in the heart of Penrith itself. At Andrews Road, the home of rugby union, they believe they have at last found the solution to their long standing ground problems.

Rugby will only be played their on alternate weekends with 8 days between the two codes on most occasions this season.

In addition the Panthers, under the auspices of their major sponsors, the Panthers Leagues club, will this year play three of their last four home games inside the main rugby league stadium itself.

So for the majority of the time they will be co-tenants with the Penrith Emus rugby union teams and later with the Penrith rugby League club, an interesting and unusual arrangement.

Penrith, to be guided once more by former Socceroo Stan Ackerley, their coach of many seasons, will have most of last season's players back, including Mike Gibson once his understudy duties at Sydney United are over. The reserve keeper Luke Martin is a good choice to keep Gibson on his toes, being a NSW rep player for some time.

Bob Casserly, a clever utility player last seen at Hills United and earlier Mount Druitt has joined the club , but it is a settled squad at the club these days and nobody should be surprised to see veteran David Fitzharris backing up for another season when many thought he might have had enough.

Along with Richard Astone, Chris Ackerley and Danny Hinton he forms the nucleus of this strong far west Sydney club. Steve Sweeney and John Hawkins are juniors who are stepping up and looking to cement a senior spot this term. Watch out also for Karim Balloot who made a big impact last term and is set to go on with the job in this.

Penrith have played Fairfield Bulls for a narrow trial game loss, 1-2, had an even game with neighbours Mount Druitt and faced last year's unbeaten Hajduk Wanderers at the weekend. This Sunday at 5pm at Cook Park Cabramatta West they tackle Mount Pritchard a side which lost its First Division status last season.
